To Whom It May Concern

I have known Jackie Wilson for over 20 years, and have followed her recent highly successful path through the GA Level 5 Diploma in Teaching English as a Foreign Language over the past eight months.

Throughout her study, I reviewed a number of her lesson plans aimed at one-to-one general English students and business English students, of varying backgrounds and proficiency levels. I was extremely impressed by Jackie's insight and creative approach to preparing these highly detailed and precisely focused lessons (in terms of both general overview and specific detail) especially given her lack of direct teaching experience. Each lesson plan was thoroughly thought through in terms of the students' needs and goals. The lesson materials that she designed herself and the third-party materials she used were all highly appropriate, and the specific aims of each lesson and the rationale behind the approaches and the selection of materials were extremely judicious and considered.

As a university lecturer and ELT textbook writer with over 30 years' experience in English Language Teaching, I have no doubt that Jackie will prove to be an excellent teacher, one who places the needs of her students at the centre of her lessons, and who will guide them to achieve their goals with consideration, professionalism and care.

Yours sincerely
